HAROLD MAIER APPOINTED RESIDENT OFFICER IN NLRB'S MIAMI, FL OFFICE

General Counsel Ronald Meisburg of the National Labor Relations Board today announced the appointment of Harold A. Maier as Resident Officer in the Agency's Resident Office in Miami, FL (Region 12). In his new position, Mr. Maier will assist Regional Director Rochelle Kentov in enforcing the National Labor Relations Act in all of Florida, except for 12 counties in the state's panhandle region, and 21 counties in southern Georgia. The Miami Resident Office primarily serves the population of southern Florida, including Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach Counties.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act. In enforcing this law, the NLRB conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation and investigates, prosecutes and remedies unfair labor practices committed by employers and unions.

In announcing the appointment, General Counsel Meisburg stated:

Harry has demonstrated a high level of skill and dedication during his career with the NLRB. I am very pleased to have such a talented and dedicated public servant assume the position of Resident Officer in Miami.

Mr. Maier began his career with the NLRB in June 1995 as a Field Examiner in the Philadelphia, PA Regional Office (Region 4). He was serving in that position prior to this appointment.

He earned a B.S. degree in Labor/Industrial Relations in 1994 from the Pennsylvania State University (Penn State) in State College, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Maier is an 8-year veteran with the U.S. Navy Submarine Force. In that capacity, he worked as a Nuclear Reactor Operator, operating and maintaining a submarine nuclear power plant. He also stays active with his alma mater by participating in career roundtables and working with Penn State to place students in career experience (Co-op) positions with the NLRB.
